Presented by the Oregon Reining Horse Association

February 18, 2012 • 8 AM to 5 PM

State Farm Insurance Field Office • 81 Freeman Court
Central Point, Oregon 97502

The Oregon Reining Horse Association is offering this seminar developed by the NRHA to increase awareness about how the NRHA scoring system works. This course is designed to help the reining showman and the reining enthusiast learn about the NRHA scoring system, how the judges score and what those scores are based on. It will be beneficial for those who want to improve their scores in the pen and for those looking to learn more about the sport of reining.

We will be joined by NRHA Judge Bub Poplin who will take us through this often misunderstood system and help attendees to decipher what it is the Judges are basing their scores on. The ORHA is looking forward to welcoming you and presenting this seminar.

Please remember, you do not have to be an ORHA member to attend!
Reserve your space early as seating is limited!

If you plan on attending, complete the form below and mail it, along with the seminar fee of $50 to the ORHA at the address on the form. Your $50 seminar fee includes coffee, tea and pastries the morning of the seminar. Lunch will be on your own.
